FOR PRESIDENT.
JAS. G. BLAINE,
OF MAINE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.
JOHN A. LOGAN,
OF ILLINOIS.

A SICKLY ROOM.

The Pacific Coast delegation to the approaching Chicago Convention are making vain endeavors to get up a boom on the way. At all of the stations on the road they indulge in speech-making, and from all accounts make a good deal of noise. But the fatal defect in their efforts is that they have nothing and nobody to boom. They are all at sea both as to their alleged principles and their candidates. The greatest difficulty they have to encounter is the general distrust in the Democratic mind of their sincerity of purpose. There is a well grounded apprehension that they propose to "set up for themselves," so to speak, and violate the expressed wishes of their constituents. It is claimed by some of them that the withdrawal of Tilden has released them from all obligations to either support or oppose any other candidate. It is openly charged in Virginia City that the Nevada delegation will support Field, and it is charged in California that the delegation from that State will be divided on his candidacy, notwithstanding the denunciatory resolution on the matter adopted almost unanimously by the Stockton Convention. This condition of affairs will not permit of much enthusiasm yet awhile this side of Utah. The fact of Tilden's declination, and the wait that is going up from Democratic throats all over the land that the party must have him to win with, is not calculated to inspire a booming confidence. The Republican delegates went there united and enthusiastic to a man and backed with the unreserved confidence of those who sent them there. Their enthusiasm became infectious and they were the leading factors in the triumph of their purpose, but the Democratic delegates can accomplish no result for they have no one result in view which they wish to accomplish.

The Democratic wisemen, who know all about it, are now prophesying the result of the first ballot. Of course it is all guess work and to show how much at variance their guesses are, we take the figures of two of them:

Cleveland	236	150
Flower	102	60
Randall	81	60
Butler	55	50
Payne	46	50
McDonald	41	50
Bayard	22	75

The compiler of the second column places Payne and McDonald among the scattering votes and gives Field 180.

A Washington correspondent says: "It has been discovered that General Logan is the first man the Republicans have nominated for a Vice Presidency with a wife to share his honors. Dayton, nominated in 1856; Hamlin, in 1860; Johnson, in 1864; Colfax, in 1868; Wilson, in 1873; Wheeler, in 1876; and Arthur, in 1880, were all widowers. General Logan lives in the same house Mr. Wheeler lived in when he was nominated, and occupies adjoining rooms. Mrs. Wheeler died a few days after the convention."

Now comes the Irish World with an editorial declaring that unless Butler is nominated, that paper will do its utmost to promote the election of Blaine. It accepts no Democratic candidate besides Butler. This is not the only newspaper with a purely Irish constituency that gives utterance to such sentiments. Such bold declarations seriously threaten the safety of the Democracy, for the Irish vote in New York has been its sheet-anchor in all political storms.

"Field and Flower" would make a nice anti-monopoly ticket, but wouldn't "Field and Payne" be better? However, either would bring out a big "bar," and that seems to be the principal consideration with our Democratic friends.

The decrease of the public debt for June is about $9,000,000. The reduction for the fiscal year ending June 30th is about $101,000,000. The reduction for the last fiscal year was $137,023,253.

The coinage executed by the U. S. Mint at Philadelphia during June aggregated $1,771,435, including $1,140,000 in silver dollars.

CUBA FOR SALE.
Spain Aroused Over Its Proposed Purchase.

An interview with ex-collector Wicker of Florida some time since, in which that gentleman indicated that a part of Mr. Blaine's foreign policy, if elected, would be the purchase of Cuba, has considerably stirred up the Spanish authorities. The fact seems to be that Cuba is for sale and that its owners would be very glad to take a reasonable price for it. One of the Spanish Ambassadors to Cuba, sent directly for the purpose of examining into the condition of affairs and getting such facts as would enable its owners to put a definite price upon it; is expected here in a few days. He comes in answer to a summons from the Spanish Minister here and the Consul in New York, whose attention was specially drawn to the situation by the interview alluded to above. Some doubt is expressed regarding the propriety of the purchase at so high a price as Colonel Wicker reports Mr. Blaine to have put upon it, viz., $500,000,000, but the impression prevails among those that know the possibilities best that at even that figure it would be a cheap property.

The Coming National Convention.

If Congress adjourns on the 5th of July, as now seems probable, there will be a much larger attendance of Democratic Representatives at the Chicago Convention than usual. It does not seem possible now that there will be any extreme anti-tariff declaration in the Democratic platform. Many Democrats, who heartily supported the Morrison bill, admit that nothing is to be gained by renewing the fight over it, and both factions are agreed that a positive declaration in favor of tariff revision and reduction will be a sufficient announcement of the principles of the party. It is expected that the entire discussion of the tariff will be restricted to the Committee on Resolutions, and as that committee will sit with closed doors, it is not likely that any public fight will be made upon the differences that may arise. New York dodged the tariff question at Saratoga, the Ohio and New Jersey Democrats adopted what is known as the "Ohio plank" in their platform, and the Indiana Democrats adopted a platform which both the revenue reform and protection Democrats can support. The majority of those from New Jersey and Ohio, will be opposed to any extravagant anti-tariff declaration, and as the votes of two of these States are essential to Democratic success, their delegates will probably shape the tariff plank in the national platform, as they may dictate the candidate.

Revealed by Office-Seekers.

The White House has been overrun for the past two weeks with applicants for office, and Senators and Representatives have kept the President busy in listening to their friendly importunities. A large number of nominations will be sent to the Senate during the week. There are several offices to be filled in the Territories, among them Chief Justice of Idaho and Wyoming, a Surveyor General for New Mexico, and others of less importance. There are quite a number of vacant postmasterships and positions in the internal revenue and customs service. The Berlin mission will not be filled for some time to come, certainly not before the adjournment of Congress. It is probable, however, that the vacant Russian mission will be filled next week. There does not seem to have been any particular pressure brought to bear upon the President for this office, and it is likely that it may be filled by the promotion of some person now holding a second-class mission. It is observed that the President in filling the Territorial offices has not been influenced by that plank in the Republican platform which declared in favor of the selection of persons living in the Territories to fill these places.

Sargent's Banquet.

The Philadelphia Press has a special cable on the Sargent banquet. It says: Among the guests were Minister Lowell, Joseph Hutton, Commodore Santvoord, Bruce Jay, the sculptor; ex-Mayor Hall and J. P. Bigelow. In replying to the principal toast of the evening Sargent excused himself from speaking on the subject of American or European politics, saying that in the present state of the temperature he deemed these topics most untimely for a festive gathering. He skillfully parried an effort to induce him to talk about the Berlin incident, and contented himself with saying that so long as he had the approval of the Government and his present auditors he was amply satisfied. He hoped the German Chancellor was in an equally happy frame of mind. A large part of Sargent's speech was devoted to the eulogy of England and her institutions. He said if England had been two centuries ago as free and beautiful as to-day, his ancestors would never have left her shores to seek homes in the wilds of a new world. England was now the best country in the world to visit, but after all the United States was the best land to live in. Sargent's speech was greeted with frequent bursts of laughter and applause.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-awf-lyr

Strength for Mind and Body.

There is more strength restoring power in a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic than in a bushel of malt or a gallon of milk. This explains why invalids find it such a wonderful invigorant for mind and body.

Cleanliness and purity make Parker's Hair Balm the favorite for restoring the youthful color to gray hair.

It Seems to Satisfy

A family want, and I wonder how we got along without Parker's Ginger Tonic. It cured me of nervous prostration, and I have used it since for all sorts of complaints in our family. Mrs. Jines, Albany.

When the blood moves sluggishly in the veins because it is loaded with impurities, an alternative is needed, as this condition of the vital fluid cannot last long without serious results. There is nothing better than Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify the blood and impart energy to the system.

Several healthy looking men were in town yesterday looking for work. They came in on the west-bound emigrant train.

C. W. Perry, traveling agent for Galatin & Folsom, has returned from his northern trip.

The JOURNAL hopes Congress will not adjourn until it has passed the Carson Government Building Bill.

Remember Dickie Jose's farewell benefit to-night at the theater. Turn out and give the boy a good send off.

John Forbes came in from Hawthorne last night, but will return this morning. Looks well and happy, does John.

Master Frank Barnes boarded a mustang Monday and struck out for the northern country to spend his vacation.

Miss Belle Gardner, who has been East on a visit was a passenger on last night's train, returning to her San Francisco home.

Kinkad's salary as Governor of Alaska is $3,000 per annum, which is $400 more than is paid any other Governor of a Territory.

George M. Stewart was in town last evening. He is on his way to the Comstock, having just made the tour of Southern California.

If you wish to accompany the Fourth of July excursion to San Francisco and San Jose, procure tickets at once of P. H. Mulcahy, Manager.

Jacob Steiner, who returned a few days ago from a trip to his old home in the East, says he is now content to pass the remainder of his days in the sagebrush.

Jim Weltsie, of Sierra Valley, was in Reno yesterday for the first time in three years. He brought in 600 pounds of choice butter which he readily disposed of to A. Lindley.

M. M. Nixon, for many years connected with the San Francisco Mint as an Assayer, passed west last evening after a visit to his mines, located about fifty miles from Bodie. He resigned from the Mint service about a year ago to give his attention to practical mining, and says he has no cause to regret the step.

The following persons have volunteered to assist at the farwell benefit to be given Dickie Jose to-night: Miss Quiffe, Mrs. Layton, Miss Cara, Mrs. Stoddard, Miss K. Grippen, Miss C. Manning, Mrs. Powning, Miss H. Lewis, Miss F. Finlayson, Miss J. Finlayson, Miss C. Melly, Miss K. Biggs, Mr. Lindsay, Mr. Cook, Mr. Laycock, Mr. Barnett.

A Deserved Testimonial.
Miss Quiffe, the well known and proficient instructor of music at Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, has been the recipient of a 1,000 dollar piano as a token of the Bishop's esteem for the zealous work she has performed in her department. The piano is a No. 12 Chickering of the largest size, Upright, having three keys more than ordinary pianos. Each key has three strings all tuned in unison with one another. It has a patent music holder which opens and shuts with perfect ease, forming one piece with the rest of the piano. Every part fits with great exactness, forming on the whole an excellent piece of work. Very few of these pianos have been transported to the West, and in fact they are quite scarce in the East. It is a magnificent instrument and it is highly prized by the lady.

TRAVELING DUDES.

Affectations in Dress that Possess Them.

One of the most interesting features attending the arrival of the west-bound overland train is to watch the different styles of traveling costumes that are worn. It seems to be the idea of a large percentage of travelers that the ordinary wear will not do to travel in, but that something as far remote as possible is necessary for their comfort. Accordingly they devise all sorts of costumes, each to his or her own fancy. If there were any sense in their theory, experience would long since have devised some one costume which would have received the general approval of the traveling public. The fact that no such discovery has been made, seems to prove quite conclusively that it is a mere affectation that a person requires a different style of clothing to set down with in a Pullman car with other ladies and gentlemen, than would be requisite in a drawing room not half as elegantly furnished, and with society less cultivated than that he is traveling with. Short jackets that scarcely cover the waist buttons, canvass walking-shoes (fancy walking shoes for a week's trip in a palace car) and little silk caps without vizors seems to be the prevailing style. One young dude a day or two ago was attired in knee breeches, shoes with silver buckles, brown stockings coming to his knees, a tight fitting jacket buttoned up, with watch chain displayed outside, and a Scotch cap with ribbons trailing behind. He wanted to advertise the fact that he was a traveler, and to emphasize the conceit of his own that he knew how to do it. Some of the Eastern anglo-phobia dudes take a cork helmet along, bound with a long veil, the ends of which hang down their backs, and at the meal stations strut up and down the platform, as if expecting their audiences to be awestricken with their style. The ladies are more sensible in the fashions of their traveling suits, which usually consist of some light material, or of brown linen, not affected by the dust. The theatrical travelers must always be theatrical, and as a rule they make up accordingly. The companies which passed through here Sunday evening contained some fine specimens of traveling gear, the most unique of which was a linen shirt as an outer garment, with the tail torn off under the arms, or at least such was its appearance.

Knight's Ball.

The ball of the Knights of Pythias, in honor of the Grand Lodge of Nevada will be given at Dayton under the auspices of Lyon Lodge No. 12, on Tuesday evening, August 12th next. It promises to be one of the grandest affairs of that kind ever given in this State, and on that occasion will gather within the walls of the hall large delegations from all parts of Nevada. The generous hospitality of the people of Dayton is proverbial, and both the members of the order and the citizens of that pretty town will leave nothing undone to sustain their reputation as open-hearted and open-handed hosts. The tickets are $4.

Scene at the Depot.

British tourist with eye glass standing on depot platform picking his teeth. Old farmer sitting in chair close by smoking his pipe.

Street sprinkling cart comes along laying the dust.

British tourist turning to farmer—"Aw-Aw-does the caw-paw-wation, yer know, or is it done yer know, by subscribers?"

Farmer with contempt—"Neither one of 'em does it; can't you see, you d-d fool, don't the sprinkling cart does it." He saw.

The Troops Still Moving.

Four companies of the Second U. S. Cavalry passed through yesterday, westward bound. They consisted of Troops, C, M, A and K. Troop C goes to Fort Bidwell, Troop M to Fort Klamath and A and K to the Presidio, San Francisco. They are from Forts Assinaboine and Maginnis and are changing stations with the First Cavalry.

A Rednetton.

Official notice has been received at the Reno Postoffice that, commencing July 1st, the salary of the Postmaster will be but $1,800 per annum. Add to this the $700 allowed for incidentals, and the Postmaster has $2,500 in all with which to pay clerks, rent, fuel, light, etc. This is something like working for nothing and boarding one's self.

A Fine Band.

Dan O'Keefe and his brave band of sheep shearers have just returned from Churchill county where they have been shearing sheep for Senator Kaiser. Dan says he thinks the Senator has the cleanest band of sheep in the State. There are 7,500 in the band, and the clip averaged nine pounds.

The Genoa Picnic.

The JOURNAL acknowledges the receipt of, and returns thanks for, complimentary tickets to the picnic and dance at Genoa, on the 4th.

HINTS TO IMMIGRANTS.

Laws Under Which Land is Taken Up in Nevada.

Immigrants to the United States, after having taken out their first papers and declared their intention of becoming citizens, can take up land under the Homestead, Pre-emption, Timber Culture and Timber laws. Of these the first is by far the most important. The word "homestead" as now applied in the United States, signifies a tract of land given free by the Government forever on the single condition that the party taking up a homestead of 160 acres shall live on the land, cultivate it and make it his home for five years. A person wishing to enter a homestead must go to the United States land office of the district or the Clerk of the county in which the land is located, and file his application and affidavit in accordance with the legal forms furnished. The fees will be from $16 to $22, and must be paid at the time of filing the application. The settler must commence living upon and improving the land within six months of filing his application, and thereafter for five years he must make this tract his actual home. At the expiration of this time, on making proof that he had complied with the law, and on the payment of an additional $6 to $12, he will receive from the Government a complete and absolute title to the land. Homesteads, until the patent is issued at the end of the five years, are free from taxation and cannot be taken away or sold for debt.

THE OTHER LAWS.

Under the Pre-emption law, any one qualified to take a homestead is also entitled to 160 acres, but not at the same time. Under this law the immigrant must settle on the land before making his application, which he must file at the land office and pay a fee of $3 within ninety days of the time of settlement. Any time from six to thirty months the settler may pay $1 25 to $2 50 per acre, according to location, and receive his patent from the United States. Under the timber culture act 160 acres may be taken up on any section devoid of timber. It requires eight years to acquire a title, but actual residence is not required. In the first four years ten acres must be planted with trees and on the day of final proof 675 trees must be in a thrifty condition on each acre. Under the timber law 160 acres may be purchased, valued chiefly for its timber, and unfit for cultivation, for $2 50 an acre. Sixty days notice must be given in the nearest newspaper to the land by the applicant. After that time, if there is no adverse claim, the land may be paid for and a title granted.

The Nomination of Blaine.

Senator John P. Jones, in a letter addressed to a friend in Virginia City, expresses the opinion that we are going to have a very aggressive and enthusiastic campaign. The Enterprise has been permitted to publish the following extract from the letter conveying the Senator's sentiments:

A Spontaneous Nomination.

SENATOR JONES ON THE NOMINATION OF BLAINE—THE INDEPENDENTS TO CUT OUT A SORRY FIGURE.

I am perfectly satisfied with the nomination. It is one of the few nominations for President in our entire history which has been spontaneous and absolutely responsive to the popular sentiment. It was a nomination that was not secured by bargain, or purchase or combination. The delegates to the convention did not need to be drilled or disciplined by self-constituted leaders to insure the result. Mr. Blaine was as sure of the nomination immediately after the election of the delegates to the National Convention as he was when the vote was taken that nominated him. It may be said to the credit of the Republican party that their representatives in the convention voted as they were instructed and expected to vote; and, except in one or two individual cases, the vote of the delegate was in accordance with the wishes of his constituents. The canvass will be an aggressive and enthusiastic one, and not in twelve years has the Republican party had such a bright augury of success. The Independents, so-called, will cut but a sorry figure in the canvass. They consist in about equal numbers of disappointed politicians and free-traders, whose natural affiliations are with the Democrats.

An effort is being made to secure H. F. Bartine, Esq., of Carson, to deliver oration at this place. Mr. Bartine is the most prominent and eloquent speaker in the State, and if he accepts the invitation, we may expect to hear one of the most forcible and interesting Fourth of July orations ever delivered in Genoa.—Genoa Courier.

NEVADA CASH STORE.—Next door to Ruhe's butcher shop, has opened and offers to the public great bargains in dry goods and men's furnishing goods. The firm will also receive this week a lot of ladies, men and children's shoes, from the great El Paso bankrupt sale. Everybody is respectfully invited to call and price goods. S. ENXION, Manager.

Parties going on P. H. Mulcahy's excursion to San Francisco, San Jose, Santa Cruz and Monterey are requested to procure their tickets to-day from the Manager.

JOHN H. KINKAD.

The Governor's Friends Express Gratification at His Appointment.

The appointment of John H. Kinkad, as Governor of Alaska, is being favorably commented on by his friends, and the JOURNAL takes pleasure in reproducing some of the press comments:

GOVERNOR OF ALASKA.

(Winemucca Silver State.)

The friends of John H. Kinkad, and they are legion and embrace men of all political persuasions in this part of the country, will be pleased to learn that he has been appointed Governor of Alaska. Though the office is not a very lucrative one, the salary being comparatively small, the country is new and its resources undeveloped, and it is possible for the Governor, who has had considerable experience in mining and other pursuits, to increase his income by judicious investments. His appointment is doubtless due to the recommendation of Senator Jones, who by virtue of being a Republican and a personal friend of Arthur, has great influence with the Administration, and his good offices will be appreciated by the many Democratic as well as Republican friends of Governor Kinkad in this part of the country.

GOVERNOR KINKAD OF ALASKA.

(Austin Revell.)

The many friends of ex-Governor Kinkad will be pleased to learn of his nomination by the President for the position of Governor of Alaska. No worthier man could be thus honored or rewarded. He has a large place in Nevada's affections and it was not the will of the people which defeated him for renomination for Governor of Nevada two years ago.

KINKAD'S APPOINTMENT.

(Carson Appeal.)

The Appeal, in behalf of the citizens of Carson, congratulates Gov. Kinkad upon his appointment as Territorial Governor of Alaska. It is a merited tribute to his able administration while the Chief Executive of this State, and his appointment may also be regarded as a compliment to Nevada.

GOOD MAN FOR THE POSITION

(Elko Independent.)

The President has nominated ex-Governor John H. Kinkad for Governor of Alaska, who will doubtless be confirmed by the Senate. A large majority, if not all of the people of this State, will be glad to hear of his success. A better man for the position could not have been selected.

Knights of Honor.

The members of Silver State Lodge, Wadsworth, and Nevada Lodge, Reno, Knights of Honor, with a large number of invited friends, celebrated the 11th anniversary of the order in the United States, at Arcadome Hall, Reno, Monday night. The hall was magnificently decorated and the hallway brilliantly lighted with Chinese lanterns. P. H. Mulcahy acted as master of ceremonies. The programme of the evening was as follows:

Opening Ode, by the Choir, with Miss Quaffe at the organ.
"When the Leaves Begin to Fall," a solo, by Miss Kittie Biggs.

Dramatic reading—Scene from "King John," by Miss Carrie Melly.
Remarks—by Dictator T. V. Julien.
Song—"Postilion," by R. Jose.

Recitation—"Out West," by Kittie Mamie Purdie.

Solo—"The Song of Church Bell," by R. H. Lindsay.

Solo—"Take Me Home," by Miss Flora Finlayson.

Dancing followed the literary exercises. An excellent lunch was served in the ante-room. All present were highly pleased with the evening's entertainment.
